To make your very own Britannica Bedtime novelty book ...

YOU WILL NEED:
Scissors (there’s quite a lot to cut out)
A cutlery knife (not sharp and not serrated)
Pritt stick glue or similar
A ruler
Colouring pens or pencils
An adult to help (if you have one handy)

Britannica Books
5-Minute Bedtime Stories Event
With Sally Symes – Writer and Designer

COVER - personalise title and colour stars

Spread 1 - time for bed!
personalise

Spread 2 - how do you sleep?
make flap (colouring in)

Spread 3 - who’s hibernating?
make flap

Spread 4 - float off to sleep!
make simple pop-ups
COVER Write your name on the front cover. Fold the page in half along the dotted line, then glue the back of the book covers together. Cut around the dotted line (it doesn’t matter if you’re a bit wobbly), then fold the front cover over. Colour the stars in later.
My name is . . . . . . . . . . . . .

I am . . . . .

years old

I go to bed at

My favourite position to sleep in is ...

CUT OUT YOUR FAVOURITE SLEEP POSITION AND STICK HERE

GLUE BED COVER FLAP HERE

User:
Who sleeps in a den for 5-7 months to escape the winter cold?

There is very little gravity on board the International Space Station, which means that everything, including the astronauts, floats!

INSIDE PAGES  Cut carefully around the solid line. Fold the pages along the dotted lines to make a W shape.

GRIZZLY BEAR FLAP
FOLD IN HALF & GLUE TOGETHER BEFORE CUTTING OUT

ASTRONAUT BOOK POP-UPS
Cut out then fold along the dotted lines to make a zig-zag. Glue them on the page where it says GLUE.
BED COVER - you may want to draw or colour your own - so here are some options!

FOLD IN HALF & GLUE TOGETHER BEFORE CUTTING OUT

DESIGN YOUR OWN COVER!